CHAPTER 167.

AN ACT to encourage the destruction of crows in Dorchester county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland. That any person killing any crow within the limits of Dorchester county shall be entitled to receive a bounty of five (5) cents for each and every crow so killed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That, to obtain said bounty, it shall be necessary for the person killing said crow to produce the head of the same before some justice of the peace for Dorchester county, and at the same time make oath that the said crow was killed within the limits of said county, and thereupon the said justice shall give a certificate of the production of the said head before him and the taking of said oath; and it shall be the duty of the said justice to destroy the said head so as to prevent a second allowance upon the same.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That upon the production of the said justice's certificate before the County Commissioners, they are authorized and directed to levy upon the assessable property of the county a sum sufficient for such bounties for the use of the person producing the same, and shall pay the same accordingly.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 7, 1910.
